DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, Claim(s) 1 through 11 and 13 through 15, drawn to a process of making a transformer.

Group II, Claim(s) 12, drawn to a bobbin.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons.

Group I lacks the special technical feature of an elongated tube having an essentially rectangular interior hollow cross-section, as required by Group II.

Group II lacks the special technical feature of feeding a ribbon of magnetic material, as required by Group I.

3. If applicant(s) elect the invention of Group I, this application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Species I-A, directed to cutting a ribbon at a desired length;

Species I-B, directed to pre-bending a ribbon;

Species I-C, directed to providing a layer of low coefficient of friction;

Species I-D, directed to arranging a flexible transmission element;

Species I-E, directed to rotating a bent bobbin with a coil;

Species I-F, directed to injecting a medium through an opening; and Species I-G, directed to performing a magnetic field.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner.

Species I-A, Claim 2;

Species I-B, Claim 3;

Species I-C, Claims 4, 5, 7 and 8;

Species I-D, Claim 6;

Species I-E, Claim 9;

Species I-F, Claim 10; and

Species I-G, Claim 11.

NOTE: The following claim(s) are generic: Claims 1 and 13 through 15.

5. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons.

Species I-A includes a special technical feature of cutting a ribbon at a desired length, which is not required in Species I-B through I-G;

Species I-B includes a special technical feature of pre-bending a ribbon, which is not required in Species I-A and I-C through I-G;

Species I-C includes a special technical feature of providing a layer of low coefficient of friction, which is not required in Species I-A, I-B and I-D through I-G;

Species I-D includes a special technical feature of arranging a flexible transmission element, which is not required in Species I-A through I-C and I-E through I-G;

Species I-E includes a special technical feature of rotating a bent bobbin with a coil, which is not required in Species I-A through I-D, I-F and I-G;

Species I-F includes a special technical feature of injecting a medium through an opening, which is not required in Species I-A through I-E and I-G; and Species I-G includes a special technical feature of performing a magnetic field, which is not required in Species I-A through I-F.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
